Technical Direction Definition:

- (1) Contractor refers to Consultant, Contractor, Subrecipient and Vendor. Contract refers to Agreement, Purchase Order, Subaward or Subcontract.
- (2) The Contractor shall accept in-scope Technical Direction from the Caltech Technical Representative through the issuance of Caltech Technical Direction Memoranda (TDM), Reference the form LIGO-F0810001-v4, which is incorporated into and made a part of this Contract.
- (3) Technical Direction Memoranda shall not be used to:
 - (A) Assign additional work outside the Statement of Work;
 - (B) Impose a Change as defined in General Provision 6, Changes;
 - (C) Cause any increase or decrease in the total estimated Contract cost or the time required for Contract performance; or
 - (D) Change any of the expressed terms, conditions, or specifications of the Contract.
- (4) The Contractor shall proceed promptly with the performance of technical direction duly issued by the Caltech Technical Representative in the manner prescribed by this clause. If, in the Contractor's opinion, any instruction or direction contained in a Technical Direction Memorandum falls within any of the categories defined in paragraph (2) of this clause, the Contractor shall not proceed but shall notify the Caltech Administrator in writing within 5 working days after receiving it and shall request the Administrator to take action as described in this clause. Upon receiving this notification, the Administrator, acting reasonably, shall issue either: (i) an appropriate Contract modification within a reasonable time, or (ii) advise the Contractor in writing within 30 days that the instruction or direction is rescinded in its entirety, or that the instruction or direction is within the requirements of the Contract and does not constitute a change under General Provision 6, Changes, and that the Contractor should proceed promptly with its performance. Any resulting dispute between the Contractor and the Institute over whether the technical direction is in or out of scope shall be handled by the parties pursuant to General Provision 10, Disputes and Governing Law.
- (5) Any action(s) taken by the Contractor in response to any direction given by any person other than the designated Caltech Technical Representative or Administrator shall be at the Contractor's risk.
